Gallery - Less Is More

This does not mean that one should not act at all, but that often doing less is doing more. Being patient and paying attention can save us from doing too much or having to do things over again. In a Japanese story that illustrates this well, a local lord has three sons and must decide who should inherit his position.

Less is More | BrocanteHome Ok Sweeties, as you may have noticed, dear little BrocanteHome has got a new dress on. I have dithered and dithered about re-designing yet again, but after listening to both my Mum and my sister, who view BrocanteHome on iPads, and were finding it ludicrously difficult to navigate because of the big pink dropdown box

Translate less is more in Italian with examples

"Less is more" (vale a dire "meno è più" ovvero "meno è meglio") è un'espressione adoperata inizialmente dal poeta inglese Robert Browning, nel 1855, in un monologo intitolato Andrea del Sarto ("Well, less is more, Lucrezia") e quindi diventata celebre grazie ad uno dei massimi architetti contemporanei, il tedesco Ludwig Mies van der Rohe.

Artists have long explored the nuances of limited colour palettes in their work. Recognising the power of simplicity in conveying a succinct message without too much noise or artifice instantly changes the way we interact with these compositions, and allows for the subtle use of texture, form and layer to create interest and convey information in unique and innovative ways.
