(Lonesome) Moonlight Waltz Bill Monroe - Brian Oberlin

Hello folks! I was wondering if you guys have any suggestions on putting some bells and whistles on Bill's Lonesome Moonlight Waltz. I added some slides on some of the licks like Grisman does but I would like to get your input on how you guys on the mandolin cafe play it. Ps. I dont intend on straying away to much from the original, just want to try some new techniques on a classic tune.

In the screen display version of the tab (which you are looking at now), many of the tremoloed notes are tied to a non-tremoloed note of the same pitch, usually a 1/8 note. Musically this should sound like one note - the tie is just to remind you that you should tremolo for the full value of the tremoloed note and then finish on a downpick, which is the non-tremoloed note.
