Egoism in Rand and Stirner | Libertarianism.org
Stirner and Nietzsche made me give up hope on demand-side ethics fully. It's weird to occupy my position, because I'm definitely a nihilist in some sense, but I also believe strongly in the virtues as a way to achieve eudaimonia - those virtues being self-defined, of course, so as to avoid subscribing to slave morality/being spooked.. Stirner is a total boss and his work on anarchism is a big ...
