This is book 4 in the author's Dream Man series and the transition book between the Dream

Man series and the Chaos MC series. I originally thought my dislike of the book was because I was reading it out of order. I read the first three Dream Man books and discovered that all of the books had the same tropes, and roughly the same plot.

He was the one. This motorcycle man in bed with me was the man of my dreams. I never would have guessed it would be a man like him but I knew it was. I knew it the minute I saw him across the forecourt, through the sea of people, all of them laughing, drinking, shouting, dancing, eating, necking or fighting.

Motorcycle Man Dream 4 Kristen

Motorcycle Man is the first book I've read by Kristen Ashley and I think that's where I went wrong. I probably should have read books 1 - 3 in this series in order to get an initial impression or appreciation for the main character Tack. So meeting him for the first time in Motorcycle Man was a bit of a shocker for me.
