TeachersFirst Review - Mrs. Meacham's Classroom Snapshots

Yay! We made it to guided reading. Guided reading is done as part of a small group (4-6 students). The text is selected based on the students' instructional reading level. The students read the book independently while the teacher supports the students and coaches them towards success. This is where true differentiation takes place!

The nature of the Guided Reading approach means that although six children in my class receive focussed attention for the half hour session, the remainder are left to work independently. I find myself thinking up tasks which "keep them busy" rather than ones which will challenge and extend their learning as these often require some input and support from me.
