Mystical Poems Of Rumi
This is one of the first English translations of Rumi's amazing mystical poems - in some senses it is a continuation or extension of that published by Arberry's predecessor & mentor, R.A. Nicholson. It is similarly literally accurate (as far as I have gathered from several comparative reviews by Persian-speaking critics - which I am not).

Mystical Poems of Rumi. My verse resembles the bread of Egypt—night passes over it, and you cannot eat it any more. Devour it the moment it is fresh, before the dust settles upon it. Its place is the warm climate of the heart; in this world it dies of cold. Like a fish it quivered for an instant on dry land, another moment and you see it is cold.
