It's Denver Restaurant Week! So we chose cafe de France as our date night restaurant. It wasn't very busy for a Saturday night, but as I've read in other reviews, it's the hidden gem of the DTC. And it really was, the food was lovely! And for us, service was good - funny story about that later, but first, the food:

The cafe is something special. I honestly can't say I've been to a cafe before that felt so welcoming and inviting. The owner (I can't spell or pronounce her name but it's a beautiful name) treats all of her customers almost like they are family. The food and drinks here are delicious. Fresh, high-quality food served every time. I love it.
