Naoko book by Keigo Higashino - ThriftBooks

First off, this was the Higashino book that I was most interested but The Devotion of Suspect X was more easily available, so I read that one to see how I like the author's writing style. Immediately after I finished Suspect X, I ordered Naoko. It was delivered around 2pm and I finished it just after 9pm. This book is an emotional rollercoaster.

Naoko — Vertical, Inc.

The novel begins with a close description of events, but then skips ahead, months and even years at a time. Too easily Heisuke and Naoko-Monami adjust to their roles -- with the exception of how they call each other (too often they forget that Naoko-Monami is supposed to be the young girl Monami and not Heisuke's mature wife when others are around).
