Walt Disney's Comics and Stories Walt Disney's Comics and Stories is the longest running continuously published comic book in history. The first issue was published in October 1940 and fresh issues are still coming off the presses today. This is a truly amazing achievement. No radio or television show has had anywhere near that longevity.

"Turkey in the Straw" is an American folk song that first gained popularity in the early 19th century. "Turkey in the Straw" was initially a popular tune for fiddle players as early as 1820. In the late 1870s until the 1930s, "Turkey in the Straw" was performed in minstrel shows by blackface actors and musicians.. The first part of the song is a contrafactum of the ballad "My Grandmother Lived Here"

A classic work of literature, adapted for children and beautifully illustrated. Perceiving the need for a simpler version of a timeless classic, Helen Taylor faithfully adapted John Bunyan's allegory of the Christian life, The Pilgrim's Progress, for young readers—hoping to bring its treasury of wisdom nearer to children's hearts and minds.. That version has sold over 800,000 copies.
