REVIEW: Nightmare City by Andrew Klavan The morning Tom woke up and saw the fog outside was the morning everything changed. An empty house, mysterious messages sent through his television, and creatures lurking just outside the front door envelop Tom in the most frightening day of his life.

Nightmare City, Chapter 59

You have to fight no matter what. Giving up is not an option. These are the things I took away from Nightmare City. And believe it or not, these things are very relevant to my current personal life situations. I am grateful to Andrew Klavan for writing this book and I am grateful for this message at a time in my life when I actually needed it.
