Nox is a eulogy for Anne Carson's brother, Micheal. In 1978 he ran away to Europe to avoid going to jail. For the next 22 years he communicated sporadically with his family. Some letters and postcards with no return addresses and a handful of phone calls were all that Carson knew of her brother.

Nox Quotes by Anne Carson - Goodreads

Anne Carson's new book of poems is an elegy for her brother. Almost all the meanings in that sentence are not quite what they seem. Nox (Latin for night) is not a collection in the ordinary sense, but a box containing a single long sheet of paper folded like a concertina.
