Numbers Chapter 32– John Karmelich 1. My title for this lesson is "The danger of compromise".

Read Book Numbers Chapter 32

Let's be honest, most of us don't think of compromising with someone as being a bad thing. If anything, learning to compromise is the secret of a successful relationship with anyone in life. That is not what I am talking about here.

Numbers Chapter 32– John Karmelich - BibleStudyEmail.com In Numbers chapter 32 summary, we'll learn about the land to the east of the Jordan, which was desired by some of the tribes. The tribe of Gad and Reuben join together to request from Moses the land on the east coast of Jordan. Instead of going across they rather keep the land on the east of the Jordan.

Numbers Chapter 32 Verses 1-42:

The tribes of Reuben and Gad desired to live in the land already conquered because they possessed much livestock and the land was good for grazing. Moses gave them, along with the half tribe of Manasseh, portions of the land only on the condition that they would fully participate in the conquest of Canaan.

names to the cities "they builded" should be understood as their changing the names of the cities which they rebuilt. This reference obviously was associated with this chapter at a time subsequent to the death of Moses, the person responsible for it, no doubt being Joshua, who, it will be remembered had the same inspiration that Moses had.
