It's a toss up between Occultation and The Beautiful Thing That Awaits Us All for my favorite collection from Laird Barron. Both were near impossible for me to put down. While the stories share common elements, each generally marks a different world, different time period and characters at odds with some bit of cosmic nastiness or another.

Occultation And Other Stories Laird

The stories in Occultation are in my opinion more accessible to take in as Laird can be quite challenging ay times. They are gripping, mysterious, creepy and sometimes weird and horrific but they all share one thing in common, they are superb pieces of fictional work.
