Panamarenko describes 100,000 Revolutions/Minute Jet Turbine as a revolutionary invention. It is a machine that can rotate fully around its own axis. Panamarenko constructed it out of simple materials like a bicycle chain and batteries. The contrast between the concept – the 'revolutionary invention' – and its execution – which is ‘cobbled together’ using simple ...

Panamarenko The Antwerp Toy Maker La Favola Dellarte

When Panamarenko talks about his work, he does little to demystify it and can actually make it seem even more mysterious: 'I was given a nice tree trunk by the city council, because they wanted a nice wooden bird like this. And there he is now, jumping up and down like a demented chicken. A toy, that's what it is.
