All your promises were lies Promises and lies Your cut was quick and deep But then you thought you'd never need a friend But all things change, and tides must turn And you let all your bridges burn Too many fatal wounds to heal The rest is history You can do no more to me I've been down so low Had nowhere left to go I could see it in your eyes

Lies And Broken Promises

This poem is about promises that someone you truly love made to you, and within a second, they had thrown it all away, including you. You feel hurt, as though no one
