When I first came across this book, "Puppy Love," I had no idea what I was in for. I like to read stories that don't follow the "norm" of what people say I should be reading. I like to test the boundaries and explore. Wow, I was glad when my eyes caught this book. It's a story about 19 yr. old Petey Drinkel and his coming to terms with his ...

review 1: Petey is in a subservient relationship with dom Matt throughout the book. The book also showed poor Petey defending his choices throughout, using his own rational, which is clearly born out of a sense of low self worth, he makes matt a god like figure. it was bearable, it was YA, its fiction, it was a insecure main character and i didnt have to take it too seriously.
