Rebels and Traitors is a groundbreaking departure for this most admired of British authors, returning to Lindsey Davis' first love in historical fiction, the English Civil War. Sweeping in scope and fraught with the same drama and passion, her epic novel does the same for this century as Margaret Mitchell's A groundbreaking historical novel set in the English Civil War.

Rebels And Traitors Lindsey Davis

Rebels and Traitors must seem like a new departure for me – though it's really what I always wanted to write. Some of my friends have been hearing about this for nearly fifty years! I was in my teens when I first started caring about the English Civil War, which has always appealed to my liberal ...
