Rhymes With Witches Lauren Myracle
I read another book by Lauren Myracle, TTYL, and truthfully, I wasn't that impressed. I felt as if even though she was writing in the style and attempting to capture what a teenage girl was really like, her effort ultimately failed. So, with skepticism in mind, I began to read the book Rhymes with Witches.

Summary and reviews of Rhymes with Witches by Lauren Myracle

Where does high school popularity come from? In cutthroat Crestview Academy, it comes from black magic. Like everyone at Crestview, dorky Janie and Alicia want to be liked by the Bitches, the three popular girls who rule the school. Janie can scarcely believe it when Mary Bryan, Keisha and Bitsy invite her into their clique. Every year, apparently, the Bitches choose a desperate, nerdy girl ...
