I see more than just whites in the photo. You can call me all the names you want, I am immune to labels. Welcome to 2016, the year where calling someone racist bigot xenophobes doesn't do anything anymore and our voices won't be silenced by your false accusations.. By all means, keep being upset though - that's certainly your right.

The Sabre Squadron - Wikipedia

"Sabre Squadron" reads a lot like accounts of the Long Range Desert Group in World War Two--navigating over the sand for thousands of miles and hide-siting during the days to avoid detection, only in an era with laser target designators, anti-tank I liked it; the autobiographical account of SCUD hunting in DESERT STORM has, of course, been done before--controversially--in "BRAVO TWO ZERO" (and Andy McNab moves around on the edges of this narrative, as well, because it's a small community).
