Saint Death is the 2nd full length book in the John Milton series, and to my mind the best one so far. At the end of 'The Cleaner' we saw Milton escaping from the crime ridden East End of London. Now six months later he reappears in South America, for those 6 months Control and Group 15 have been searching for any hint of his location.

John Milton 2. Milton is a British assassin who one day decides to quit and stop killing people for HMG. So he does a runner to South America, ending up in a Mexican border town dominated by the narcotraficantes. When I say dominated, I mean that you do what they say or they kill you, your wife, your kids and your pet Labrador.
