Scarred Love should be on everyones must read list for 2013, and it's a great summer/beach read. The author writes so descriptively, that is easy to imagine you are living in Sulfur Heights. Her main character Darcie is not only the beautiful it girl of the story but she has flaws that make her very human, which is rare in a fiction romance novel.

Scarred Love (Sulfur Heights Book 1) Kindle Edition by M.S. Brannon (Author)

Scarred Love Sulfur Heights 1

Scarred Love was a surprisingly gritty and haunting NA/Upper YA contemporary romance. The love story was atypical and therefore less predictable. I enjoyed the book quite a bit and flew through it in a matter of hours. The narration bounced back and forth between Darcie and Reggie, though Darcie narrated most of the novel.

Sulfur Heights Series by M.S. Brannon - Goodreads
If you read Scarred Love then you know these books have a dark, edgier nature to them and love or hate them they get to you. Sulfur Heights is the bottomless pit the Evans family have grown up in and you either sink or swim in their world but one thing is for sure and that's they always stick together.
