Seizure by Robin Cook - Pan Macmillan

My first Robin Cook book was Charlatans (2017) - read by George Guidall. An incredible book - so I've started listening to some of his older stuff like this one (Seizure). I know this is one of his older books but the narration is terrible (sound effects, bad reader) and the plot has potential but has several side angles that make it borderline ...

Seizure Robin Cook

I think this is the worst Robin Cook book I've read so far. I have always enjoyed his thrillers but Seizure is definitely one from an off-day. The story was all to predictable and character development was minimal.
