June 2005 Sumana Harihareswara nonfiction Standing Alone in Mecca: An American Woman's Struggle for the Soul of Islam by Asra Q. Nomani It seems unfair to judge Standing Alone in Mecca as a memoir when it's clearly unfinished. It tells us the history and the recent dispatches of battles within Islam, but the story's barely begun.

Standing Alone: An American Woman's Struggle for the Soul ...

Standing Alone in Mecca became an utter chore. The gist of Nomanis book is that Islamic fundamentalists have misinterpreted the Qur'an in order to repress women in Muslim communities. The On one hand, I think it's good for my book discussion group to read this, as several of the members could use a basic education about the Islamic world that isn't taught by Glenn Beck.
