Straight to Hell painted a world full of glory holes, where around every corner men were having every kind of sex. A reader once called it both "fantastic jerk-off material & consciousness-raising stuff." For some readers in the '70s, Straight to Hell was a revelation: men were having sex with one another everywhere, all the time. It wasn't just happening in New York, San Francisco, and Los Angeles; it was happening in Pennsylvania shopping centers, Ohio taverns, and South Carolina ...
