(Begin at the Beginning) The word beginning is a bit misleading since some scenes pick up in the middle of the action or continue where others left off, so I prefer the term launch, which more clearly suggests the place where the reader's attention is engaged anew.. Visually, in a manuscript a new scene is usually signified by the start of a chapter, by a break of four lines (called a soft ...

Parental incarceration leads to an array of cognitive and noncognitive outcomes known to affect children's performance in school. Therefore, the discriminatory incarceration of African American parents makes an important contribution to the racial achievement gap. Educators hoping to narrow the achievement gap should make criminal justice reform a policy priority.

Richard I 'the Lionheart' (r.1189-99) was always abroad or on crusade. His younger brother John (r.1199-1216) was forced by his barons to sign Magna Carta (the 'Great Charter'), which was intended to limit his powers, in 1215. But ultimately he ignored it. His incensed barons invited Prince Louis of France to invade in May 1216.
