Survival in the Killing Fields by Haing Ngor

For his role as the journalist Dith Pran in the film The Killing Fields (1984), Haing Ngor, a Cambodian doctor with no acting experience, won an Oscar. In playing the part, he drew on his own tormented life as a war slave during the Cambodian civil war, which makes the agony seen in the film seem mild.

The Killing Fields (film) - Wikipedia

Of the three that I read, which featured comparably grim survival stories, this was the most vivid, compounded by the incredible irony that this author -- a medical doctor -- went on to reach Los Angeles and win an Academy Award for portraying Dith Pran in THE KILLING FIELDS.
