As much as I disliked Kissing Sin, I liked Tempting Evil. Maybe because there is more substance and action in this book. Riley, almost a full guardian, is placed as the sexual entertainment and fighter (among other women) at Deshon Starr's estate - He is the kingpin of the great crime cartel that is responsible for the breeding labs and the experimental cloning.

Riley Jenson Guardian Series by Keri Arthur - Goodreads

Tempting Evil In a world full of seduction and sorcery, the nights are no different. They bring out the damned, the desired, and the beautiful. Here, Riley Jenson plays by her rules and trusts her lovers and superiors more than she trusts her enemies. Her mission is to gain entry to Deshon Starr's pleasure palace, which is heavily guarded.
