The Digger And The Flower

A digger notices a flower on a small plot of land in the middle of a city. He cares for it everyday. Then one day, the trucks realize that that small plot of land is the only one in the city that hasn't been developed. Before the digger can stop it, the dozer plows down the flower. The digger is devastated. Then he sees the seeds left from the ...

The Digger and the Flower | IndieBound.org

A story of three trucks, Crane, Dozer and Digger, who mindlessly build and build until Digger notices a flower in the rubble. Struck by its beauty, Digger takes care of the flower as the other trucks continue to build around him until finally there is no more space to build on except the strip of earth where the flower grows.

Children's Book Review: The Digger and the Flower by ...

While Crane and Dozer build on, Digger waters the flower, shields it from the wind, and sings to it. But the lot on which the blue flower stands is the last empty site in the city; in a scene that may be difficult for sensitive readers, Dozer summarily cuts the flower down. Shaken, Digger finds a way for the flower to live on.
