Fetch by Laura Whitcomb, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Laura Whitcomb illustrates the concept of a Fetch, a death escort, pretty well, including more details about just what the Fetch escorts his charges through, as well as how it happens. This definitely comprised a large part of my fascination with the novel, as it was what caught my attention about the book in the first place.

The Fetch by Laura Whitcomb - The Book Muncher

Whitcomb (A Certain Slant of Light, 2005) again tackles possession, spectral romance and reconciliation with the past, with a decided lack of oomph. Fetches are dead souls who usher others from their "death scenes" through "the Aisle" to their final resting place; this Christian-based vision of the afterlife is fresh and engaging.
