Review: The Hand of Oberon by Roger Zelazny
? Roger Zelazny, quote from The Hand of Oberon "I wish that some time, long ago, something had not been said that was said, or something done that was not done. Something, had we known, which might have let him grow differently, something which would have seen him become another man than the bitter, bent thing I saw up there.

Editions of The Hand of Oberon by Roger Zelazny

Since each of the books in Roger Zelazny's the "Chronicles of Amber" series (both the Corwin and the Merlin sub-series) flows from one to the next without pause or summary, they really can't be rated individually. This book, "The Hand of Oberon (The Chronicles of Amber Book 4)", though, is a bit better in one sense, but a bit less good in another.

The Hand of Oberon : Roger Zelazny : 9781531809324

If Sign of the Unicorn was the politicking book of this series, The Hand of Oberon is the world-building book, and Zelazny delivers. We get not only the root cause of the problems that have been plaguing Amber (and some rather interesting symbolism), but also some neat magical creatures, quite a bit more of the background and origins of Amber, and its underlying magical basis.

8+ quotes from The Hand of Oberon by Roger Zelazny

"The Hand of Oberon", the fourth book of the first Amber series, is perhaps the most pivotal. Within, many of the mysteries we've followed since "Nine Princes" are finally resolved, setting us up for the big climax in "Courts of Chaos". In addition to enough plot twists to make your head spin, it's also notable for Corwin's first real problem with Random - who finds that he might have very ...
