Devil of the Highlands Series by Lynsay Sands

After reading Taming the Highland Bride, I was eager to start the next in the series, The Hellion and the Highlander. While this was a very entertaining and enjoyable read, it was similar to the previous book in that both had an attempted murder mystery of the main male character.

Fortunately, they had been on the same side as the Donnachaidh warriors for that excursion, and Kade knew this man to be the cousin of Cullen Duncan, or the Devil of Donnachaidh, as they called him. The last time he'd met Tavis, the man had been full of smiles and had managed to charm his way under every skirt they'd encountered...which was a surprising number considering the circumstances.
