The History Of Hobbit Part

The History of the Hobbit makes that obvious. It isn't that Tolkien directly copied someone else; it is that there were sometimes dozens of examples of a single motif that he could draw from. The idea that he drew heavily from Wagner's Ring Cycle is a lot less convincing when you consider that his original conception of the ring was very different and that magic rings are a common motif in folklore.

The Hobbit - Wikipedia

The first edition of The History of The Hobbit was released in two parts, Mr. Baggins (Part One) and Return to Bag End (Part Two) in May and June of 2007 in the U.K. by HarperCollins, then in September in the U.S. by Houghton Mifflin, which also released it as a boxed set in October.
