Trinity - Wikipedia
At the first level of analysis, Trinity is in Scripture as a very modest summarizing statement about how many names are to be counted in the one baptismal name in Matthew 28:19. This simple counting is in itself not much of a foothold for proper Trinitarian theology, which sees three coeternal and coequal persons related by processions revealed in the missions.

20 Bible verses that mention all Trinity members
Although the words “holy trinity” are not found in the Bible, the Bible both Old and New Testaments – clearly refers to the one God as a tri-unity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
