The Idea Factory
Jon Gertner's "The Idea Factory" is a mild corrective to the commonly found anguished certainty that America's days of innovative scientific greatness are behind us. In its exploration of the might and works of Bell Labs, this book reminds us that genius requires the right cultural environment to flourish, and it addresses whether collective or individual genius is the mainspring of scientific advancement.

The Idea Factory: Bell Labs and the Great Age of American ...
In "The Idea Factory," Mr. Gertner — an editor at Fast Company magazine and a writer for The New York Times Magazine — not only gives us spirited portraits of the scientists behind Bell Labs' phenomenal success, but he also looks at the reasons that research organization became such a fount of innovation, laying the groundwork for the networked ...
