The School for Good and Evil - Wikipedia

The last book of the series makes up for the confusing messages of the second book. This book deals a lot with the issue of age while still tackling issues of gender and good and evil like in the first two books.

But, The Last Ever After is not just about heartache and pain, it's also about true love, courage and above all, friendship. This is not your usual fairytale where everyone gets a typical happily ever after. That being said, I think fans of The School for Good and Evil series will embrace Sophie and Agatha's "the end."
