Alison Moore (Author of The Lighthouse) - Goodreads
Shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize, Alison Moore's The Lighthouse is both a thriller and an elegiac look at memory in the vein of W.G. Sebald's The Rings of Saturn. Following a newly divorced man as he goes on a walking tour of Germany, Moore's novel builds in tension as it plumbs what it means to be loved, and how the small traumas of youth can last throughout one's life...

Alison Moore - The Lighthouse
Alison Moore's prose style is lean and there is a beauty in its sparseness. "The Lighthouse" reminded me of novels by the Norwegian writer Per Peterson but whereas Peterson's work is haunting and lingers in the memory, "The Lighthouse" left me emotionally empty. Still, I would definately read Allison Moore's next novel.
