The Magic Faraway Tree (The Faraway Tree, #2) by Enid Blyton
Parents need to know that Enid Blyton's The Magic Faraway Tree series is a slow, gentle series of adventures that take place in a magical tree and the lands it connects to in the clouds. Originally published in 1939, the language is lyrical and playful -- a slide is called a slippery slip -- and young readers will probably dream about how the kids are left to play in the woods for an entire day by themselves.
