The Magicians (Grossman novel) - Wikipedia

A magician is strong because he hurts more than others. His wound is his strength. Most people carry that pain around inside them their whole lives, until they kill the pain by other means, or until it kills them. But you, my friends, you found another way: a way to use the pain. To burn it as fuel, for light and warmth.

The Magicians (American TV series) - Wikipedia

The main character of "The Magicians" is Quentin Coldwater (Jason Ralph)--a college senior who suffers from a general malaise, as if he never feels comfortable in the world. His path is set--the obligatory applications for ivy league schools, probably followed by an unfulfilling career in something uninspiring.
