The Shackled Continent: Africa's Past, Present and Future ... I picked up Robert Guest's Shackled Continent, a book that seeks to understand Africa's poverty and development issues, with much trepidation. A continent rich with its history, people, languages and complex with its colonial past, the Atlantic slave trade, and post-colonial challenges reduced to a single descriptive word: shackled.

Countries in Africa, such as Angola and Zimbabwe, are stagnating, unable to develop economically, and cannot resolve societal tensions. In his book The Shackled Continent: Power, Corruption, and African Lives, Robert Guest concludes that the most important reason why Africa is often trapped in a powerless and poor state is because of its leadership.*
