The Sibyl Quotes by Pär Lagerkvist - Goodreads
Par Lagerkvist's novel, The Sibyl, is a parable in which the Swedish author proposes that the only way in which we can know God is through God's wrath. Lagerkvist suggests that God's ways are mysterious, but all that people can discover about God is bad. God is vengeful and God destroys whatever little good people can find in life.

The Sibyl Summary - eNotes.com

The Sibyl listens enigmatically to the stranger's grief. Then, to the stranger's confusion, she asks about the mother of the criminal. If that man were truly the son of god, that mother would be the mother of god or at least of god's son.
