the solace of leaving early online discussion She knew exactly what Taos meant: she knew he wasn't being perverse or clever or idiosyncratic. He was handing her the sweetest possibility this life offers: to leave in the middle, while everyone else stays behind and waits for the heroine to die in the cold.

The Solace of Leaving Early by Haven Kimmel (2003) ...
The Solace of Leaving Early is a remarkable novel – generous, warm-hearted, smart and ambitious. It is a novel of people and ideas, of family ties, and of how those ties endure for better or worse, of grief and love, of leaving home and returning, of the overwhelming secrets that rest quietly within us.
