The Terrible Hours: The Greatest Submarine Rescue in ...

Although the naval community may be familiar with the innovations of Charles 'Swede' Momsen, it is a shame his accomplishments may have eluded the rest of the American population. The Terrible Hours not only chronicles a horrific moment in submarine history, it introduces the reader to a genius ahead of his time.

The Terrible Hours: The Greatest Submarine Rescue in ...

An inspirational story of the wonders of human ingenuity and perseverance that lead to an impossible rescue, The Terrible Hours packed a double punch. On the surface this is the recounting of the greatest submarine rescue in history, but really this is the story of Swede Momsen, a dedicated scientist and determined visionary, whose ideas revolutionized rescue at sea, among other things.

Terrible Hours: The Man behind the Greatest Submarine ...

Though ostensibly about the first successful deep water submarine rescue in American History, "The Terrible Hours" is really the heroic story of Swede Momson, the dedicated U.S. Naval officer who overcame reams of red tape and mountains of bureaucratic ineptitude to develop the equipment that allowed the successful operation to take place.
