Testament of Solomon - Wikipedia

This book was very interesting to a person who is looking into the deeper mysteries. It is true that King Solomon himself was a Magi. This book actually talks about the signet ring and explains the meaning of the Star of David. I would not suggest the experimenting of the formulas for the book also explains that not all the formula is there.

The Testament of Solomon contains 130 sections, according to Conybeare's translation (26 chapters according to McCown's edition of the longest recension). The work is called a testament because Solomon writes the diatheken (130=26:8) in order that those who read it may pray and heed the last things ( tois eschatois ).

Testament of Solomon

The genealogy of Jesus is described in two different passages of the New Testament – one in the Gospel of Luke and the other in the Gospel of Matthew. Matthew's attempt at recording the genealogy of Jesus commences with Abraham and then begins again from King David and his son Solomon through the legal line of the kings via Jeconiah to Joseph.
