The Twin by Gerbrand Bakker - Goodreads

As with the Archipelago Press edition of his later novel, TEN WHITE GEESE, Gerbrand Bakker's THE TWIN has a lovely cover. In this case, a picture of half a dozen cows in a flooded field in Holland, the animals and the big Dutch sky reflected in the water like a mirror. It is a beautiful picture, spacious and calm -- and entirely uneventful.

Gerbrand Bakker (Author of The Twin) - Goodreads

Gerbrand Bakker's debut novel, The Twin, while not as accomplished as either of these works, has a similar feel to it. The winner of the 2010 International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award is unapologetically slow-paced, patient in its revelations, almost ritualistic in its descriptions of quotidian things....

The Twin by Gerbrand Bakker, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

The English translation of the title of Gerbrand Bakker's novel, The Twin, is appropriate enough, as the narrator Helmer van Wonderen is a twin, and his story is very much one of finding that other half of himself that he lost when his twin brother died more than three decades earlier -- but it misses the feel of the subtler, sinister Dutch ...
