The Wolf's Hour is the 6th book by McCammon that I have read and like many readers I passed it by for years because the plot seemed a little too bizarre for me. How cool can a werewolf book set in World War II be? And finally in 2001 I discovered the answer...VERY VERY COOL! McCammon tells the story of Michael Gallatin in two parts.

The Wolf's Hour - Wikipedia

Robert McCammon did this very well in "Wolf's Hour" where a werewolf works as an undercover British agen fighting the Nazis. The plot is well developed, as are the characters, an it is written well enough that it is easy to get wrapped up in the story and totally forget how preposterous it is.
