In my defense, Thus Was Adonis Murdered is no ordinary cozy mystery. It's the first of four books featuring a set of young London barristers and their friend Professor Hilary Tamar, the busybody esteemed Oxford don who, over drink. "It's disappointing," said Ragwort, "that the young man has not turned out to be a homicidal maniac.

Hilary Tamar (Literature) - TV Tropes
But to focus on Thus Was Adonis Murdered first: the book follows nosy Oxford don Hilary Tamar (gender never specified), a specialist in medieval law, and a group of barristers practicing tax and financial law in Lincoln's Inn. I was worried after the first chapter that I might not be able to get into this book, because even as a lover of Victorian writers like Charles Dickens and Wilkie ...
