Book Review & Summary: Michael Crichton's Timeline
Simply put, the only thing that saves this movie from being a total flop is Michael Crichton's original story. This movie is clearly geared to a very young (early teens?) audience, which is more interested in medieval battle sequences than in why those battles are taking place or whether they are historically accurate.

Review of Timeline by Michael Crichton
Although, this is a completely different twist to the normal Michael Crichton novel, it is written in a very Michael Crichton manner. For example, you will learn the details of how to joust properly. In more "normal" Medieval literature, this would be more of a heroic scene than what is presented in Timeline. The "heroic" here, is instead ...
