Again, I am going to focus on the 1960's Timex models as they are the ones I have personal experience with. In the men's watches, the movements included the 29, 31 and 32 which were all used in the Viscount models, and the 72 which was the only "jeweled" movement. The brand was the heart of the "21 Jewel" line.

Our pick: Weekend Fairfield, Timex $60. Zulu. This timepiece that's as durable as it is good-looking. The Zulu strap is the older brother of the band. Made of either nylon or leather, it's usually thicker and has stainless steel detailing. These bands look good with larger watch faces for casual occasions.
