Frank Delaney

When shamrock green meets black and tan, things sometimes go mauve. Irish expat novelist Delaney (Ireland, 2005) likes his history with a leavening of fiction, or perhaps his fiction with a leavening of history. In previous work, this history has been sometimes incidental, but here, in this tale of Ireland in a time of dispossession and civil war in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Delaney ...
