Tumble Home A Novella And As much as it is a suspense film based off of Stephen King's novella The Body, it takes a hard look at parents' cruelty and neglect in the 1950s while King demonstrates the harsh bullying and lazy days of waiting around for something fun to happen. Stand by Me is a triumph of realism in kids playing together.

The Pearl by John Steinbeck Poverty, greed, sorrow This book was incredibly strong in its ability to make readers ponder upon their own lives by pushing the limits of issues like poverty. A very fast-paced story that involved a man's family into conflict once he found a precious item that could solve all his problems but that item only ended up creating new ones.

Elizabeth Davis has a novella called BEWITCHING DESIRE that is the second book in her Coven of the North Star series. It is a m/f romance, and the male character is a transracial adoptee. I really appreciated the way there was acknowledgement of the significance of this, even as the plot was focused elsewhere.
